JLS Automation Exhibits at Pack Expo 2008

JLS Automation of York, PA announced their participation in Pack Expo 2008 held in Chicago's McCormick Place, November 9-13, 2008.

JLS Automation will be exhibiting with Strategic Partner Ilapak (Booth #N-3864). The JLS Automation's Talon Series picking system will demonstrate the company's ability to integrate their "pick and place" technologies with existing packaging lines, as well as with complete "turn-key" packaging systems. An integral part of the Talon system, the Impulse Multipick end of arm tool (EOAT) developed to achieve higher picking efficiencies, requiring fewer robots, and a smaller footprint for the Talon Series picking systems.

Overview of the JLS Automation Talon series picking system:

- Reliable ABB IRB 340 FlexPicker
- Fast, Efficient JLS Impulse MultiPick End-of-Arm-Tool
- Designed Agility through Advanced Vision and Tracking Capability
- Flexibility to Accommodate Numerous Infeed and Packaging Machinery Configuration
- EOAT (Mechanical or Vacuum) Designed to Handle:
  - Candy
  - Bakery products, cookies and crackers
  - Meat and frozen products (USDA approved)
  - Pouches, bags, and cartons
