

Press Release

JLS Automation is pleased to announce its approval for membership in the Packaging Machinery Manufacturers Institute (PMMI) as a General Member. PMMI currently has 517 General Members and 13 Supplier Members. PMMI membership offers many tangible and intangible benefits to its members. It is by far the largest organization of its kind in North America. The process took over six months to complete from the initial application to final approval at the recent Executive Leadership Conference.

JLS has provided solutions for packaging systems for many years and has recently introduced several new packaging systems for high speed picking and packing requirements. JLS has a heritage in high performance motion control with a focus on robotics and vision technology. The company is exploring a number of strategic alliances in the packaging industry as well as adding representatives to expand its sales channel. JLS was founded in 1955 and is based in York, PA.
